

Stratford Concert Choir
sharing great choral music

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Statement

Stratford Concert Choir takes Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion seriously. It ensures membership is based on musical aptitude only and is non-discriminatory re race, gender, religion, or cultural background.

Diversity

The Stratford Concert Choir welcomes singers from all cultural backgrounds who enjoy making music and bringing the repertoire of the Choir to the wider Community. The Choir is open to applicants irrespective of race, gender, ethnicity, religion, nationality or sexual orientation. The Choir is auditioned and selects new members solely on the basis of their musical ability.

Equity

Members of The Stratford Concert Choir have equal opportunity to participate in the administration of the Choir by serving at both Committee and Board level. Through regular rehearsal and occasional workshops, the Choir gives members equal opportunity to develop their musical skill-sets.

Inclusion

The Stratford Concert Choir and its Board have created an open and transparent environment in which all members feel valued and respected. The Choir is a community of people with a shared passion for choral music and a desire to grow both musically and personally.
